HISTORY OF ROAD SAFETY AWARENESS

The first road safety awareness week was observed in 1989 when the country lost 36,000 people in traffic crashes. On 15 March 2010, India's Union Cabinet approved the National Road Safety Policy based on the Sunder Committee's recommendation in a report is submitted in February 2007.

SCOPE OF THE PROGRAM

India is celebrating 75 years of independence. This is a special occasion for all the countrymen to commemorate the birth of a free nation after the relentless efforts of freedom fighters and revolutionaries against the oppressive British rule. The celebration of Independence Day honours the sacrifices of our courageous leaders and freedom fighters, who gave their all for the sake of the nation and the countrymen.

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAM

The aim of celebrating the campaign road safety week is to promote road safety measures in the community, schools, colleges, workplaces, on roads and etc. To decrease and completely remove out the road accidents, road accident death, and injury cases by applying the road safety measures. To encourage all the travelers to follow the traffic rules and wear helmets and seat belts while driving To implement the new preventative measures which are proved to lessen the risk of road accidents, death or injury.
