Description of the Event:

Entrepreneurship and innovation are closely related but distinct concepts. Innovation involves introducing something new, such as a business model, product, idea, or service, while entrepreneurship focuses on turning a great idea into a viable business opportunity. Innovation is the starting point for entrepreneurship, as it involves the creation of new and valuable ideas whereas entrepreneurship goes further by taking on the risk and responsibility of bringing those ideas to market and building a successful business. Innovation entrepreneurship fosters creativity, design thinking, and encourages employees to tap into their creative potential. It helps businesses adapt to market demands and trends, opening doors to new opportunities for growth. It paves the way for continuous improvement within organizations. Recognizing the importance of innovation, entrepreneurs strive to enhance their creativity and drive ongoing advancements in their products, services, and processes. Through continuous improvements and enhancements, businesses can increase their profitability and efficiency, propelling them to greater heights. Design thinking plays a pivotal role in this process, as it encourages a human-centered approach to problem-solving and innovation.

In order to understand the importance of the role of innovations in entrepreneurship journey of young minds, Industry Institute Interaction Cell (IIC) in association with Department of AI-ML & ME conducted a seminar on the said title for 4th semester students on 19th July 2023 at seminar Hall, KSIT.

As per the directions of Head, Department of AI-ML & ME, 4th Semester students assembled in seminar hall at 10.25AM. The program started with welcoming the industry expert Mr. Dhiraj A Rao with a bouquet by Dr. Dilip Kumar K, Principal-KSIT. Prof. Rajesh G.L, Chief coordinator – IIC outlined the meaning of innovations, continuous improvement and design thinking. Mr. Dhiraj A Rao briefed on critical thinking with case studies, explained how innovations are beneficial in entrepreneur journey. He also discussed about design thinking, out of box thinking, innovative entrepreneurship and creative thinking. Further, program ended with vote of thanks by Prof. Rajesh G.L at 12.30PM.

Objectives / Key Highlights:
